Challenge The move for Speechley Bircham held a number of challenges that law firms in London usually face when relocating their premises. Storage space is often a large consideration due to the nature of their work. The added challenge the New Street Square space was the inability to build storage wall on the floor and would have to be incorporated into the furniture scope. In addition, the company had limited the space they were taking so looked to take a heavy cellularised company into an open plan layout.

Solution Spacecraft tailored Knoll's WA deking system to accommodate the law firms specific needs. Desk mounted storage boxes allowed users to localise their storage with freestanding banks of storage integrated with printer areas supplemented the capacity. ...
